

IET 131: Fluid Power Systems

This course is provided instruction in topics ranging from basic physical concepts of machines to component operation and its typical system applications. Included are hydraulic valves, actuators, pumps, motors and their connection in transmission of energy through fluid power systems.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 2

Lecture Hours: 2

0