

Definition of Student

For the purpose of this policy, “student” means any person who has been enrolled in and is attending or has attended any course offering of Coastal Alabama Community College. It does not include prospective students.