

Pre-Professional Programs

Students who are preparing for careers in the professions have opportunities at Coastal Alabama Community College. The College offers small classes with individual attention, special pre-professional academic advisors, modern, well-equipped laboratory facilities, and an exceptionally trained and caring faculty dedicated to providing the best preprofessional education available anywhere. Admission to most professional schools is highly competitive, thus it is recommended that students choose and plan an undergraduate program with attention to alternative career goals.