

Student Work and Copyright

Faculty members should be aware that students own the copyright to their work, including papers and assignments they have completed; therefore student work is protected by copyright regulations. Faculty should have written permission from the student copyright holder to use their work. Any student work that is to be placed on reserve must be accompanied by the written and signed permission of the student (specifying name, contact information, title of item[s], statement giving permission, and dates included). As previously stated students have the right to publish any of their own creative work and are entitled to 100% of the royalties for their work.
