

BAR 120: Properties of Chemistry

This course provides the student with a basic knowledge of chemicals used in barber-styling. Topics include the changes produced in the hair and skin through exposure to chemicals, electricity, and special light spectrums. Upon completion, the student should understand the proper use of implements and chemicals to treat hair and skin.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 0

Lecture Hours: 3

0