
CIS 244 : Introduction to Cybersecurity

This course will introduce students to cybersecurity, while they gain additional insight into the challenges companies face today. Students will develop an understanding of cybercrime, security principles, technologies, and procedures and techniques used to defend networks.

Credits 3

Transfer Code

Code C

Prerequisites

As required by the college.