

DAT 122: Clinical Practice II

This course is designed to provide the student the opportunity to develop advanced dental assisting skills in chairside dental assisting procedures, radiology, team work, communication skills and administrative duties. Emphasis will be placed on clinical procedures. Upon completion, students should be able to demonstrate proficiency in the area of chairside assisting. DAT 111, DAT 104, DAT 113, DAT 116, DAT 121 and appropriate grade.

Credits: 4

Lab Hours: 0

Lecture Hours: 0

12