
PCT 221 : Unit Operations

This course is an introduction to the equipment and processes used in the paper and chemical industries. Topics include a study of vessels, piping systems, valves, pumps, heat exchanger, and filtering systems. Upon completion, students should be able to demonstrate a knowledge of vessels, feed systems, and equipment used in process industries.

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 2

Lab Hours 2

Core Course

Prerequisites

None

Corequisites

None